HUNTINGDON, PA.

Tuesday afternoon, Oct. 1, 1861.

Our Flag Forever.

Union Conference.

The Democratic and Republican Committees of Conference appointed by County Delegate Conventions of the parties, met in the Court House on Tuesday afternoon August 27th, and put in nomination the following Union ticket:

ASSEMBLY,
JOHN SCOTT, of Huntingdon.
ASSOCIATE JUDGE,
BENJ. F. PATTON, of Warriorsmark.
COUNTY COMMISSIONER,
JOHN S. ISETT, of Franklin.
COUNTY TREASURER,
JOHN A. NASH, of Huntingdon.
DIRECTOR OF THE POOR,
JAMES HENDERSON, of Cassville.
AUDITOR,
MILTON SANGREE, of Walker.

The following resolutions were read and unanimously adopted by the Conference:

Resolved, That it behooves every true patriot in this important crisis in our Country, to lay aside party trammels and sustain the National and State Governments in supporting the Constitution and preserving the Union of the States.

Resolved, That we should use every effort to foster and keep alive the fire of patriotism now filling the breasts of all true and loyal American citizens.

Resolved, That this Convention, representing both the political parties of the county, have the fullest confidence in the integrity and capacity of Hon. GEORGE TAYLOR, and they commend him to the support of the people for President Judge of this Judicial District, believing him to be a pure and upright citizen and a learned and able Jurist.

The Election.

On Tuesday next, the voters of the county will be called upon to go to the polls and vote as their best judgments will dictate. The fact that there is but one full ticket before the voters, should not be an excuse for any one to refuse going to the polls. The people abroad will be anxious to know the strength of the good feeling in Old Huntingdon, and for their gratification as well as for the credit and gratification of our own citizens, we hope there will be a full vote out.

Proud of Our County.

We are proud of Old Huntingdon county. When the first gun was fired at Sumpter she sprung to arms, buried all party feeling, and sent her sons to the field to sustain the Government and fight rebels. The three months service done, she has not let her ardor die, and now has seven full companies in actual service, at least four more in camp preparing for active duty, and recruiting is still actively going on.

While our brave soldiers are thus upholding the country's flag, the people at home are showing that they are too much in earnest to think of anything less than the country. They have laid aside their party names and feelings, are uniting in support of a Union ticket, and have refused to respond to a call to put any other in nomination.

We are proud of our county, and we think we have a right to be. Who can show us the evidence of a better spirit anywhere?

N. B.—The men are all right, and the women are determined not to be behind them. We have heard of a patriotic lady near Alexandria, who took her baby to church a few Sabbaths since, dressed in red, white and blue, and had it baptised E Pluribus Unum. Porter township must be all right for the Union ticket after that.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.—One night last week, Billy Dunn, a half witted, but harmless creature, attempted to put an end to his life by hanging himself to the rafters of Mr. Jacob Miller's stable, but not having everything fixed up as it might have been, he failed in the attempt, for when he took the fatal leap, as he thought, he had made the rope too long, and his feet touched the hay, when poor Billy yelled lustily for help, screaming murder, fire, help, &c., alternately, until he was rescued from his perilous situation. When discovered, he was entirely nude, but for what purpose we did not learn. He was given quarters at the boarding institution at the head of Smith street.

P. S.—Billy was sent to the Poor House yesterday.

CAMP CROSMAN.—There is now in the neighborhood of a thousand men in camp. On last Tuesday, Captain Derathberno brought a very fine company of men from Warriorsmark township and adjoining townships of Centre county. On Friday another company came into town, and quartered in the Court House until to-day. We have not learned the Captain's name, but were informed the company hailed from Clearfield. The men are all able-bodied pine knots. A number of squads of men have also arrived to fill up companies.

THE BATTLE OF MUDDY RUN.—On Sunday afternoon last, five or six soldiers from Camp Crosman, belonging to the companies from Philadelphia, entered Mr. Dean's Hotel, in the upper end of town, and by force, filled their canteens with whiskey, and after they had drank of it freely, they got into a free fight with a number of our up-town citizens who had gathered in the neighborhood of the hotel. The soldiers charged on the citizens with a shower of stones, compelling them to take shelter behind a blacksmith shop. Very soon the citizens made a charge on the soldiers, and in the fight one of the soldiers shot one of his own thumbs off, and the balance were roughly handled in close quarters. When we arrived on the battle field the soldiers, all but one, had left for camp. The one remaining, too drunk to walk, was taken to jail on a wheelbarrow by three officers of the companies.

We are not surprised that there has been a disturbance in town. Since the opening of the encampment there has been a number of drinking men and boys running loose through town day and night, and as the town has no officer to arrest disturbers of the peace, we could not look for less than a general row between some of the soldiers and some of our citizens.

Wild, reckless men and boys must have a master, and we are pleased to learn that those in charge of the encampment have now taken the proper steps to protect our town and our citizens from the annoyance of noisy and ill-behaved soldiers; and we hope our borough fathers will also take a step forward and appoint some man who will discharge the duties of a constable, that those of our citizens, the boys in particular, who are as noisy and devilish as many of the soldiers, may receive proper attention.

THE NATIONAL FAST.—There never was such a general observance of a day of worship as there was on Thursday last. A Sabbath-like quiet prevailed throughout the day. Every place of business was closed, and the Union meeting at the Methodist Church was attended by a large congregation. The chaplain of Col. Zeigler's Regiment delivered the address. We went to camp in the afternoon, where we listened to an excellent sermon, by a reverend gentleman whose name we did not learn. Everything wore a Sabbath-like appearance.

Battery Presented.

Mr. Charles Knap, of the Fort Pitt Foundry, has presented to Col. Geary's (Twenty-eighth Pennsylvania) Regiment, the splendid battery of rifled cannon now in possession of the Fort Pitt Light Artillery, a portion of which company will go with the battery to Washington City.—Phila. Inquirer.

This is a valuable acquisition to the regiment, which is fifteen hundred strong, armed with the Enfield rifle and sabre bayonets, and is the only one in the service with the rifled cannon. Capt. McCabe's company is attached to this regiment.

THE STORM.—The storm that visited us on Friday evening last, done considerable damage. Trees were blown down and some outbuildings unroofed. The barn of Wm. McMurtrie, on the hill, was leveled to the ground, the grain scattered about and three hogs killed. From adjoining townships we hear of fences, timber and fruit trees having been blown down. The storm was the heaviest we ever witnessed, and we believe it general over the country.

PREACHING.—Rev. S. L. M. Conser, formerly pastor of the M. E. Church of this place, and now chaplain of the 5th Reg. Pa. R. V., preached in the Court House on Sunday afternoon last, at three o'clock, to a densely crowded house. We did not have the pleasure of hearing the gentleman speak, but are informed that it was a grand effort, and one worthy the able, eloquent gentleman.

A Sad But True Picture.

The following is an extract of a letter from an intelligent lady residing in one of the border counties of Virginia, in which the ravages of Secession have made the strongest impression:

"May God speak to the people of both sections, and, with his mighty voice, say unto them, "Peace, be still!" May the blessed Saviour, who came on earth to establish peace and good will amongst men' have mercy upon us, and give us all grace to do that which is right in His sight, so that we may deserve His protection. I did not believe that I should live to see this great and highly favored nation in its present deplorable condition. My heart aches and my spirit is crushed at the sight of so much distress. We have new-made graves and desolate homes and bleeding hearts in our midst; and that is true of all parts of our unhappy land, in which there should be justice, brotherly love and unity. May God help us: for I have lost all confidence in men, especially politicians. A fearful responsibility rests somewhere. I would not like to have even a feather's weight of it resting on my conscience. The breaking up of such a government as ours is no small sin. I pray God to bless you all and bring us out of this trouble. He had exalted us above all other nations in blessings and privileges. We must have sinned greatly to bring upon us such a heavy chastisement. We are suffering in every way by the fearful state of things now existing in our once happy and prosperous country."

Our Army Correspondence.

CAMP JACKSON, Sept. 28, 1861.

To the Young Ladies of Huntingdon, Pa.:

HONORED LADIES:—The undersigned but expresses the feelings of the company to which he is attached, and indeed of the whole Regiment, when he returns his sincere thanks to you for the kind reception which you gave us as we passed through your town, and the seasonable repast which your unsolicited generosity prompted you to prepare for us. The pies, cakes, eggs, coffee, tea, &c., &c., which you so liberally supplied us with, I assure you were eaten with a double relish, when we saw with what earnest good-will you distributed them. Our few minutes stay in Huntingdon is a green spot in our memories, and one to which we look back, and converse about with pleasure.

Wishing the best of wishes for your welfare, with much respect,

Yours truly,
JAS. W. ABERNETHY, 1st Serg't,
Co. E, 9th Reg. Pa. R. C.
Washington, D. C.

CAMP TENELLY, Sept. 22, 1861.

DEAR GLOBE:—The last letter I wrote to you was dated, I believe, September 2d, and on the 4th we were ordered to pack up and travel. We left about 1 o'clock and came to this camp, arriving here about sundown, and had to go about half a mile to water our horses; so you may imagine what time we were ready to go to bed. We are encamped in the woods; it is a splendid camp, but rather inconvenient on account of water. We only drill twice a day, but with watering and feeding our horses, we are kept busy all day.

One day last week, his excellency, Gov. Curtin reviewed the troops here; fourteen regiments of infantry and six batteries of artillery, were in the field; a flag was presented to each regiment by the Governor. As the flags were presented, he was cheered by some of the infantry but artillerymen never cheer. Yesterday we were reviewed by Generals McClellan and McCall, the President of the United States and Prince de Joinville. I had not time to count how many regiments were there, but understood there were twelve. Only two batteries of artillery were present; two batteries are near the Chain Bridge, and I do not know where the others are.

Last Sabbath, I rode over to the encampment of the Pennsylvania Fifth, to hear Rev. Conser preach; after the sermon, he read the Lord's Prayer, and nearly all the men repeated it after him; he then read the apostle's creed, and the men repeated it also. It was a touching and solemn scene to see those strong men stand with uncovered heads repeating with all the simplicity of childhood, the first prayer they were taught from their mother's lips.

I took dinner with the members of the "Huntingdon Infantry," and although they had no butter or coffee for dinner, I never eat a heartier meal in my life; it was some of Pat Kelly's cooking.

To-day we had preaching in camp; we have no chaplain yet, but the chaplain of the Third regiment came and preached for us by request; his text was in the latter clause of the 46th verse of the 18th Psalm, "Let the God of my salvation be exalted." In the course of his remarks, the reverend gentleman said he intended to go into the battle-field, if opportunity offered, with the bible in one hand and the weapon of war in the other, and he was one of those that believed he could offer up an acceptable prayer to God, and at the same time shoot his country's enemy.

We heard heavy firing in the direction of the Chain Bridge this evening, but, of course, we don't know what it meant.

Nothing more, but remain your obedient servant,

RANGER.
Co. G, 1st Art. Reg., P. V.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, September 25.

This morning, at eight o'clock, 5,000 infantry, three companies of cavalry, and three batteries, left the Chain Bridge, under the command of General William F. Smith, for the purpose of making a reconnoissance in the neighborhood of Lewinsville, and to obtain forage, etc.

The result of the expedition was altogether successful. Several head of cattle and sheep, besides large quantities of hay, corn, and oats, in wagons employed for the purpose, were brought into camp.

About 2 o'clock this afternoon, while our troops were at Lewinsville, a large party of rebels, consisting of about five regiments of infantry, a regiment of cavalry, and six pieces of artillery, approached from the direction of Falls Church. They opened on our men with their battery, and their firing was immediately responded to by Captains Griffin's and Mott's guns. Thirty-five shots, both shell and solid, were fired from our batteries, which silenced the rebel cannon, and the enemy immediately retreated to Falls Church.

It is not known what damage was sustained on their side. One man on our side was slightly wounded by the explosion of a shell.

The object of the expedition having been accomplished, our troops fell back to their original position at the Chain Bridge, bringing with them a man representing himself as aid-de-camp to Col. Stewart, of the Virginia Confederate Cavalry, and who was taken prisoner at Lewinsville.

While the Second Michigan Regiment were yesterday performing picket duty at Bailey's Cross Roads, a flag of truce was brought in by two colonels and a major belonging to the Confederate army at Munson's Hill, asking for a suspension of hostilities between the pickets, which request was acceded to by the commander of the Federal forces.

Last night a Confederate officer deserted from the rebels and swam to one of the steamers of the Potomac flotilla. He imparted to them much valuable information in regard to the doings of the rebels along the river, and informed our officers of concealed batteries at Freestone points. Means were immediately taken to silence the batteries. Accordingly, to-day, the steamers Seminole, Jacob Bell, Iceboat, and Valley Spirit, opened fire upon the batteries and were answered from the shore. The firing was kept up for some time, when batteries were finally silenced, without the loss of a man on our side. The rebel loss is not known. The official report of the battle was not received at the Navy Department to-night. The deserting officer says there is a determination not to allow the Pensacola, now fitting out at our navy yard, to go down the river. The rebels have prepared heavy guns at different places to either disable or sink her.

A farmer from Occoquan, who made his way to Alexandria at daylight this morning from the vicinity of Occoquan, reports that the troops are in considerable force at that point. He thinks there are at least two thousand at Occoquan, and they are stationed at other points between that place and Acquia Creek. They are building forts, and drawing cannon with teams to the forts. He says they talk of crossing into Maryland, but by what means he was not informed. They are in good condition as regards clothing and rations, and work as if laboring on their own farms.

The official report of sick and wounded in the Washington, Georgetown, and Alexandria hospitals, gives a total of 797—which is two hundred and forty less than was reported a week ago. The labors of the Sanitary Commission, and excellent regulations issued by Gen. McClellan, have resulted in almost complete exemption from sickness by our troops.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27th.—It was generally rumored through the city that there would be an advance from one of our divisions across the Potomac this morning, for the purpose of driving the rebels out of their entrenchments on Munson's Hill. But up to noon all was quiet.

One of our pickets was severely wounded by a shot from a rebel picket last night. This shows that they have not abandoned this practice, which has been forbidden along the Federal line.

The Government has satisfactory assurances that there will be as many volunteers tendered as will be needed, without resorting to drafting, and has therefore, refused to sanction the latter process of raising men.

Thomas J. Jeffries, Esq., of Philadelphia, paid a visit to Washington, a few days since, at the request of the War Department, to make arrangements for organizing a huge blacksmith shop for the Department. The amount of work is very large. The economical management of the Assistant Secretary of War is exhibited, in this instance, by making such changes as will save, in this one item, a hundred thousand dollars per annum.

WASHINGTON Sept. 27.—Gen Sherman's expedition to the Southern coast will sail within three weeks at the furthest. Fifteen or twenty regiments will have the privilege of going to Charleston, as the principal officers in command believe, or to Mobile, or New Orleans, as others conjecture. General Viole's brigade five regiments now in camp here—will form a part of the force, and will go to Fortress Monroe, to sail thence within a few days. General Sherman will not strike the only blow on the seaboard.

Many volunteer officers have been summoned to appear before the Board of Examiners organized yesterday. The stampede of the incapables has begun. Two Colonels and twenty-five other commissioned officers in General McCall's Division, and several from other divisions have resigned in anticipation of a call before the dreaded Board. It is believed many will be discharged for incompetency.

As Fort Lafayette overflows, orders have been sent to get ready several forts North for the reception of political and war prisoners. Captain George Kensal, now recruiting in Boston, is instructed to provide quarters and rations in Fort Warren for one hundred.

Gen. King, in to night from the Chain Bridge, reports a drawing back of the enemy and says that he thinks Lewinsville is occupied only by their pickets. Beyond Alexandria, on the other hand, the rebel pickets, backed by a heavy force, approach their lines toward us every day.

A New Yorker, a deserting Lieutenant from the rebel army, escaped from Freestone Point, was to-day brought to this city. He says the rebels have 10,000 men at Freestone Point, 30,000 between there and Manassas, and large numbers along the river to Matthias, and can entirely destroy navigation, while the force on the Potomac is about 180,000, well provided with cannon and plenty of food. He further says, the rebels intend to cross the Potomac above and below Washington, and simultaneously attack in front and rear.

General Sickles is making the business of recruiting for the Rebel army troublesome in Maryland. He yesterday bagged twelve rascals engaged in this business, and took from one of them a subscription book well filled with the names of farmers and merchants, pledging money and equipments for a cavalry regiment. Gen. Sickles has two regiments with him.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—It is conclusively ascertained that the rebels have batteries erected at all important points on the Virginia side of the Potomac, from Acquia Creek to the Occoquan.

All is quiet here to-day, and also on the other side of the river.

A large Union meeting is going on to-day in Anne Arundel county, Maryland.

Efforts are being made for the release of Mayor Brown, of Baltimore, from Fort Lafayette, and there is little doubt that he will be released.

The Baltimore Evening Star, heretofore inclined to Secessionism, has come out decidedly for the Union.

The National Republican of this morning says:

We were yesterday informed by the captain of a coal schooner, who had just arrived, that on Thursday, while on his voyage up the Potomac, and being a short distance below Freestone Point, he suddenly found himself in the midst of a battle between the United States war steamers and a lot of rebels on shore.

He stated that the shells were flying so thick and fast about him, that he deemed it prudent to get out of the way as fast as possible. He is confident that he saw one of the steamers in a sinking condition.

On Wednesday night while the propeller Planet was near Matthias Point, an accidental shot from the Delaware passed through her hull, and caused her to sink almost immediately. The crew were all saved.

The Reliance came up to the navy yard, on Thursday morning, from the lower Potomac, bringing with her a lieutenant of the rebel army, who had deserted, and by means of a raft succeeded in reaching a schooner near Evansport.

He reports that there are heavy batteries concealed by the brush, along the river, one of which is at Cockpit Point. From ten to fifteen thousand troops are stationed along the Potomac, among whom there is great dissatisfaction.

Several contrabands, lately picked up and also brought up by the Reliance, make similar statements, and say that the rebels were busy all day Sunday hauling cannon to Freestone Point.

The Lieutenant has gone down the river in another boat, to point out the precise localities of the rebel batteries.

The Latest News.

The Surrender of Col. Mulligan.

HUDSON, Mo., Sept. 28.—The following account of the siege of Lexington is furnished to the St. Louis Republican by Henry Bradburn, one of Col. Mulligan's soldiers, who left Lexington on Saturday morning: The fort was surrendered on Friday afternoon. The men fought for fifty nine hours without water, and had only three barrels of vinegar to quench their thirst during all that time. There were no springs or wells of water in the camp ground, as has been stated. The supply was from the river, and was cut off after a desperate fight on Wednesday. The camp ground consisted of about ten acres, and was located a short distance from the river. There were breastworks entirely around it with the exception of the portion next the river. It was here the hardest fighting took place.

The rebels procured a large number of hemp bales, rolled them in advance, and under their cover gradually succeeded in securing a position in the rear. They then cut off the supply off water, and had the fort completely surrounded. They made but few charges upon the breast works during the entire siege, their object seemed to be to surround the fort and cut off the supply of water. Having succeeded in this, they awaited until Col. Mulligan was compelled to yield to the foe more terrible than the twenty-seven thousand rebels that surrounded him.

Previous to the surrender he offered to take a position on a level spot of ground and give Gen. Price the odds of four to one in a fair and open fight, but no attention was paid to it. After the surrender the rebels mounted the breastworks and seemed mad with joy.

As soon as the surrender took place a party took down the flag and trailed it in the dust. An immense amount of gold, supposed to be about a quarter of a million, fell into the possession of the rebels. It was taken from the banks and buried by Col. Mulligan on the camp ground, some time ago. The rebels speedily unearthed it.

Col. Mulligan wept like a child when he found himself compelled to surrender. The morning after the surrender the men were all released on parole and ferried across the river. The officers were retained. The loss of the rebels is not known, but it is thought to be not less than a thousand killed and wounded. Their first attack proved more disastrous to them than the long siege which followed for a day or two previous to the last attack.—They were engaged in burying their dead.

CHICAGO, Sept. 23.—A special dispatch from Quincy to the Journal, says that Col. Mulligan has been released on parole, and will be here this evening. He will remain until Gen. Fremont's orders are received.

Brookfield to the Assistant Quartermaster to provide subsistance for 2,000 men, and to have it ready upon their arrival.

The commissioned officers are retained as prisoners by the rebels.

QUINCY, Ill., Sept. 23.—A part of Col. Mulligan's command arrived here this evening. The balance, amounting to nearly 2,000, are expected to-morrow. Those who have arrived say that the force at Lexington is only about 2,500, including several companies of Home Guards, who are accused of having shown cowardice. The surrender of Lexington was made at five o'clock on Friday afternoon.

The flag was hauled down by the home guards. Col. Mulligan is spoken of in the highest terms. He displayed great bravery during the action, and when asked to surrender he refused. His sword was taken away by force.

Col. Mulligan and all the commissioned officers are held prisoners by the rebels.

The following is the text of the original telegram of Gen. Fremont to Washington, relative to the surrender at Lexington:—

"HEADQUARTERS, WESTERN DEP'T, St. Louis, Sept. 23.

To Col. E. D. Townsend, Adjutant General:—I have intelligence from Brookfield, that Lexington has fallen into General Price's hands, he having cut off Mulligan's supply of water.—Reinforcements, four thousand strong, under Gen. Sturgis, by the capture of the ferry boats, had no means of crossing the river in time. Gen. Lane's force from the southwest, and Col. Davis' from the southeast, upwards of eleven thousand in all, could not get there in time. I am taking the field myself, and hope to destroy the enemy either before or after the junction of the force under Gen. McCulloch.—Please notify the President immediately. (Signed,)

"JOHN C. FREMONT,
"Major-General Commanding."

Affairs in Kentucky.

LOUISVILLE, Sept. 25.—The Journal of to morrow, will contain a statement that the Confederates are committing outrages on the Southern borders of Kentucky; that on Monday afternoon some two hundred cavalry took possession of Albany, the county seat of Clinton, eighteen miles from Burksville, and levied contributions on several village stores; took three hundred dollars in gold from Dr. Beckett, and thirty-six stand of arms and a quantity of ammunition belonging to the State.

The citizens of Burksville have been warned that the Tennesseeans propose visiting them, and have prepared to receive them. There is much distress at Albany and Burksville, and the people there are calling for men and arms.

FRANKFORT, Sept. 25.—In the House to-day, Mr. Underwood reported an amended bill from the Committee on Military Affairs, calling out 40,000 volunteers for service from one to three years. It was passed by a vote of 67 to 13. The Senate concurred in the above bill by a vote of 21 to 5.

The Senate also passed, by a vote of 16 to 10, a bill providing that Kentuckians who voluntarily joined the rebel forces invading the State shall be incapable of taking any estate in Kentucky by demise, bequest, division or distribution, unless they return to their allegiance within sixty days, or escape from the invaders as soon as possible.

A dispatch says: Gen. Zollicoffer's cavalry is scouring the country in the vicinity of his camp, arresting prominent Union men, destroying their property, and running off their slaves to Tennessee. They have taken possession of the small towns, including the extensive Clay county salt works.

A Victory in Western Virginia.

GRAFTON, Va., Sept. 25.—Five hundred of the Fourth Ohio, with one piece of artillery, and the Ringgold Cavalry, seventy-five in number, under Colonel Cantwell, and 400 of the Eigth Ohio, under Colonel Harke, made an advance from New Creek, on Monday, towards Romney. They drove the enemy, 700 strong, out of Mechanicsville Gap, on the morning of the 24th, and advancing on Romney, stormed the enemy, causing them, whose force numbered 1,400 infantry and cavalry, to retreat to the mountains, with the loss of 35 killed, and a large number wounded. Our loss was 3 killed and 10 wounded.

The Pennsylvania Troops.---The Fiftieth Regiment Awaiting Transportation.

HARRISBURG, Sept. 28.—Since the order received by Governor Curtin from the War Department to send forward the troops raised under the last requisition, Pennsylvania has sent forward four regiments of over one thousand men each, fully armed and equipped. Col. Criat's Fiftieth and several other regiments are now ready, and await nothing but transportation. The railroad companies notwithstanding their untiring efforts, have not been able to furnish transportation near so rapidly as Pennsylvania can organize, arm and equip her regiments. This is a state of things unexampled in the annals of warfare, and is in a great measure due to the ability, unceasing industry and energy displayed by Gov. Curtin and his staff. It is confidently expected that next week a regiment per day will leave Harrisburg for the seat of war.

The people have responded nobly to the call issued some time since by Gov. Curtin, and when all the now nearly completed regiments have taken the field, Pennsylvania will have more men under arms than any other State in the Union. The Quartermaster General finds it almost impossible to supply the numerous requisitions made upon him for blankets, and considerable unavoidable suffering is the consequence. This, in a great measure, might be relieved by the people of our cities and towns, following the noble example set by the ladies of Lewisburg, who sent to General Hale a few days since over one hundred blankets.—Gen. Hale has everything else required, in abundance, and until the blankets now under contract are delivered, he will thankfully receive donations of this kind.

LATEST NEWS.

IMPORTANT FROM WASHINGTON.

Important Advance of Gen. McClellan.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—During the last week it was so frequently reported from day to day, that our troops had taken possession of Munson's Hill, that when, last night, this long-predicted event took place, it found few believers among those least excited by sensation reports. A personal visit, however, places the fact beyond doubt.

The American flag now floats there in place of that of the rebels.

Detachments from Generals Richardson's, Keyes', and Wadsworth's brigades, and also from General Franklin's division, now occupy Munson's Hill, being in command of Col. Ferry, of the Fifth Michigan Regiment.

Early this forenoon the pickets from General Smith's position advanced to and now occupy Falls Church.

Neither this nor the preceding movements met with any opposition whatever, as the rebel army had on Friday night retreated from the whole line of their positions fronting Washington. Upton's Hill, this side of Falls Church, is necessarily included among the points now held by the Federal forces.

The works of the enemy, at the places they had evacuated, were in a military view, almost worthless, being nothing more than rifle pits of very common construction.

The positions at Munson's and Murry's Hill afforded the rebels nearly an unobstructed view of all our fortifications and other defences.

The appearance of the ground deserted by the rebels indicated that they were deficient in those arrangements which serve to make a camp-life comfortable, having no tents, but merely shelters rudely constructed. There were no signs to show that they had ever mounted any guns there.

Melancholy Catastrophe---Another Blunder---Colonel Owen's Regiment Fires on Baker's and Baxter's Regiment.

The advance of General Smith on Falls Church from the Chain Bridge was attended by events of the most deplorable character. Having passed Vanderwercker's and Vanderberg's houses on their way to the former place, and when about half a mile from it, by some unaccountable blunder Col. Owen's Philadelphia Irish Regiment, in the darkness of the night mistaking for the rebels Captain Mott's battery, which was in the advance, sustained by General Baker's California Regiment, Colonel Baxter's Philadelphia Fire Zouaves, and Colonel Friedman's Cavalry, fired a full volley into the troops last mentioned, killing and wounding a large number. The California Regiment, not knowing whence the firing came, returned it with marked effect. The horses attached to Mott's battery became unmanageable, and the tongues of the caissons were broken, owing to the narrowness of the road. Lieutenant Bryant, having command of the first section, ordered the guns to be loaded with grape and canister, and soon had them in range to rake the supposed enemy, when word was sent to him that he was in the company of friends. All was excitement, and a long time elapsed before the actual condition of affairs was ascertained and confidence re-established. Many confused stories prevail as to the parties on whom the blame should rest.

The Object of the Rebel Retreat.

Various speculations are rife as to the whereabouts of the rebel army, as no traces of them can be discovered in large force, occasional pickets of infantry and cavalry only being discernible at distant points, hovering as if for the purpose of observation. The most probable theory is, that, from what can be gathered, the rebels are making feints of retreat, as they did previous to the battle of Bull Run, with the view of drawing our troops into ambuscades. This opinion is strengthened by the repetition of a conversation which a farmer residing in the neighborhood of Falls Church overheard the day before.

The encampments of the rebels show that they at no time had over 10,000 men in front of Washington, and at the points which they have just evacuated.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—There are no reports as yet of military movements to-day, from the advanced lines of the army in Virginia, but it is presumed all is quiet. The army is in fine condition and capital spirits.

It is believed here that the rebels are drawing their lines towards Manassas, and extending them towards the upper Potomac. Important events are doubtless at hand.

The news from the Potomac is that the rebels have evacuated their battery at Freestone Point. Nothing can be seen there but a sandbank, according to the report of the gunboat Yankee, which has made a reconnoissance.

LATER.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—This morning the rebels appeared in force on the Virginia side of the Potomac, opposite Great Falls.

A battery of six pieces of artillery was opened on the infantry of General McCall's division.

Reinforcements were immediately sent to our side, when three regiments of infantry came up to the support of the rebel battery.

Gen. McCall's batteries then came up and took position. At once they opened a rapid fire, and with such good effect that the rebels dispersed in every direction. There was not a single man hurt on our side.

The Federal forces this morning, took possession of Lewinsville, seven miles beyond the Chain Bridge, on the road towards Leesburg.

The rebels retreated as our men advanced, the only fighting being slight skirmishing, which did no damage.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—An officer who witnessed the disaster of Sunday morning attending the advance of our troops towards Falls Church, states that Barr's battery of Campbell's Pennsylvania Artillery was immediately in the rear of Mott's battery when the first firing commenced, the balls coming from the declivity of a hill. Dense woods being on each side of the road they failed in their purpose, and these batteries escaped injury. About half an hour afterward, another panic happening, Barr's battery was ordered to fire on their rear—they had already loaded their artillery, but being aware that their friends were in that position refused to fire. Had they thoughtlessly obeyed the order the havoc would certainly have been frightful.—There is still a mystery concerning the first firing on the advancing column, many believing that it came from a body of rebel cavalry.

[Ten or fifteen were killed and about thirty wounded.]

From Kentucky.

LOUISVILLE, Sept. 30.—The Journal has reliable evidence that the rebel General Zollicoffer has taken Manchester, in Clay county, with great destruction of property there.

Judge Ventrees, of Hardin county, has been arrested for aiding the rebels.

The rebel force under Humphrey Marshall have disbanded and gone home.

From Missouri.

JEFFERSON CITY, Sept. 28.—All intelligence is kept very close since the arrival of Gen. Fremont, who goes to camp with his staff and a numerous retinue to-morrow. When he will leave here is uncertain, but, probably, not before Tuesday or Wednesday next.

The opinion seems gaining ground that the rebels intend to remain at Lexington for some time, and prepare for a good engagement there.

Many persons say that if Gen. Fremont is energetic and rapid in his movements he can cut off Gen. Price's chances of escape and obtain a brilliant victory.

JEFFERSON CITY, Sept. 29.—Captain Walter, of Col. Marshall's regiment, who was at Lexington, arrived this morning. He left there on Thursday at noon. He saw no rebel troops between Lexington and Sedalia, and says that the main body of General Price's forces were there when he departed, and he believes that they intend to take a stand and meet our troops there, as the vicinity is well calculated, from its streams and deep rising banks without bridges, to trouble an advancing enemy.

All the Federal officers have been released on parole except Col. Mulligan, who refused to give his for private reasons.

Price has probably 35,000 men, and the rebels, on Thursday, confidently expected that Hardee, with 8,000 or 9,000, and McCulloch, with 10,000 men, were within two or three days' march of Lexington.

A body of 10,000 rebels were sent across the Missouri from Lexington on Thursday, with the avowed intention of attacking Lane, who is reported on this side of the river. Our troops had no cartridges, no grape or other shot left at the time of the surrender, but lost from 200 to 300 kegs of powder. The rebels are casting all kinds of balls at the Lexington foundry, which is at work day and night. The rebels are greatly encouraged and declare that St. Louis shall soon be in their possession.

24th district, composed and created as follows, to wit:—That all that part of Shirley township, Huntingdon county, lying and being within the following described boundaries, namely: beginning at the intersection of Union and Shirley township lines with the Juniata river, on the south side thereof; thence along said Union township line for the distance of three miles from said river; thence eastwardly, by a straight line, to the point where the main from Eby's mill to Germany valley, crosses the summit of Sandy ridge; thence northwardly along the summit of Sandy ridge to the river, Juniata, and thence up said river to the place of beginning, shall hereafter form a seperate election district; that the qualified voters of said election district shall hereafter hold their general and township elections in the public school house in Mount Union, in said district.
25th district, composed of the borough of Huntingdon at the Court House in said borough. Those parts of Walker and Porter townships, beginning at the southern end of the bridge across the Juniata river at the foot of Montgomery street, thence by the Juniata township line to the line of the Walker election district, thence by the same to the corner of Porter township at the Woodcock Valley road near Ker's school house, thence by the line between Walker and Porter townships, to the summit of the Warrior ridge, thence along said ridge to the Juniata river so as to include the dwelling house at Whittaker's, now Fisher's old mill, and thence down said river to the place of beginning, to be annexed to the Huntingdon Borough election district, and that the inhabitants thereof shall and may vote at all general elections.
26th district, composed of the borough of Petersburg and that part of West township, west and north of a line between Henderson and West townships, at or near the Warm Springs, to the Franklin township line on the top of Tussey's mountain, so as to include in the new district the houses of David Waldsmith, Jacob Longanecker, Thos. Hamer, James Porter, and John Wall, at the school house, in the borough of Petersburg.
27th district, composed of Juniata township, at the house of John Peightal, on the lands of Henry Isenberg.
28th district, composed of Carbon township, recently erected out of a part of the territory of Tod township, to wit: commencing at a Chestnut Oak, on the Summit Terrace mountain, at the Hopewell township line opposite the dividing ridge, in the Little valley; thence south fifty-two degrees, east three hundred and sixty perches, to a stone heap on the Western Summit of Broad Top mountain; thence north sixty-seven degrees, east three hundred and twelve perches, to a Yellow Pine; thence south fifty-two degrees, east seven hundred and seventy-two perches, to a Chestnut Oak; thence south fourteen degrees, east three hundred and fifty-one perches, to a Chestnut at the east end of Henry S. Green's land; thence south thirty-one and a half degrees, east two hundred and ninety-four perches, [illegible] on the summit of a spur of Broad Top, five degrees, east nine hundred perches to a pine; south sixty- [illegible] a stone heap on the Clay township line, at the Broad Top City Hotel, kept by Jos. Morrison, in said township.
I also make known and give notice, as in and by the 13th section of the aforesaid act I am directed, "that every person, excepting justices of the peace, who shall hold any office or appointment of profit or trust under the government of the United States, or of this State, or of any city or corporated district, whether a commissioned officer or agent, who is or shall be employed under the legislative, executive or judiciary department of this State, or of the United States, or of any city or incorporated district, and also, that every member of Congress, and of the State Legislature, and of the select or common council of any city, commissioners of any incorporated district, is by law incapable of holding or exercising at the same time, the office or appointment of judge, inspector or clerk of any election of this Commonwealth, and that no inspector or judge, or other officer of any such election shall be eligible to any office to be then voted for."
Also, that in the 4th section of the Act of Assembly, entitled "An Act relating to executions and for other purposes," approved April 16th, 1840, it is enacted that the aforesaid 13th section "shall not be so construed as to prevent any militia or borough officer from serving as judge, or inspector or clerk of any general or special election in this Commonwealth."
Pursuant to the provisions contained in the 67th section of the act aforesaid, the judges of the aforesaid districts shall respectively take charge of the certificate or return of the election of their respective districts, and produce them at a meeting of one of the judges from each district at the Court House, in the borough of Huntingdon, on the third day after the day of election, being for the present year on Friday, the 11th of October next, then and there to do and perform the duties required by law of said judges. Also, that where a judge by sickness or unavoidable accident, is unable to attend said meeting of judges, then the certificate or return aforesaid shall be taken in charge by one of the inspectors or clerks of the election of said district, and shall do and perform the duties required of said judge unable to attend.
Also, that in the 61st section of said act it is enacted that "every general and special election shall be opened between the hours of eight and ten in the forenoon, and shall continue without interruption or adjournment until seven o'clock in the evening, when the polls shall be closed."
GIVEN under my hand, at Huntingdon, the 12th day of September, A. D. 1861, and of the independence of the United States, the eighty-fifth.

R. NEWELL'S PHOTOGRAPH GALLERY,
No. 724 Arch Street, Philadelphia.
One of the largest and most complete Galleries in the States, where the best Pictures, known to the Photographic art, are taken at prices no higher than are paid for miserable caricatures.
The Proprietor, a practical Photographer, attends personally, every sitting—and allows no picture to leave the Gallery unless it gives perfect satisfaction.
Daguerreotypes and Ambrotypes, of absent or deceased friends, photographed to any required size, or taken on Canvass, life size, and painted in Oil by the best Artists.
At this Gallery pictures can be taken in any weather—as perfect in cloudy days as when the sun shines.
Persons visiting the city are respectfully invited to examine our specimens, which for price and quality defy competition.
Instructions given in the art of Photography.
R. NEWELL, GALLERY OF ART, 724 Arch Street, Philadelphia.
COMMENDATIONS:
From Hon. Lewis D. Campbell, M. C., Ohio.
My family and friends all concur in the opinion that the (Newell) picture is more life-like than any thing they ever saw. My likeness has been repeatedly taken by different Artists in various ways, but I have never yet had one which presents so true to nature, all the features and expressions of countenance as this.
From Hon. E. Joy Morris, late Minister to Italy.
The exquisite finish, beauty and softness of your portraits, conjoined with their durability of color and faithfulness as likenesses, cannot fail to commend them to the attention and patronage of all who appreciate true art.
From Col. James Page.
Having occasion for a portrait, I procured one from Mr. Robert Newell, of the city of Philadelphia, a miniature in Oil Colors, under the new process discovered by him, and take great pleasure in expressing the satisfaction given me, not only by the accuracy of the likeness, but its artistic finish in all respects, and recommend him to the patronage of those disposed to encourage the beautiful art.

PRACTICAL CALCULATOR.
PRACTICAL CALCULATOR.

ROHRER'S PRACTICAL CALCULATOR,
A Book of Plain Rules and Calculations for Business Operations, by Martin M. Rohrer, Practical Surveyor and Conveyancer. New Edition, published by J. B. Lippincott & Co., Philadelphia.
This work contains 204 pages, and upwards of 500 Rules and Examples, entirely and thoroughly practical, such as arise every day in the common pursuits of Business. It has already passed through a number of editions in rapid succession, and is pronounced by all classes of business men to be the handiest book of reference, pertaining to calculations, that has ever been published.
Every example in the book is worked out in full and stated in a plain manner, so that when a parallel case arises, those referring to the work will find no difficulty in solving it; in a word, the general arrangement of the CALCULATOR is simple, that any one who knows how to add, subtract, multiply and divide, can easily solve any ordinary example that arises in business, or arrive at the true result of any estimate required.
The chief aim of the author has been to eschew theory and philosophy in figures, aiming only at facts and simplicity, believing that business men care little about spending time in discussing the philosophy of rules, or the science of figures, deeming it sufficient for their purpose to be able at a moment, by reference, to arrive at the true result. The CALCULATOR differs in this respect from all other Arithmetics of the day and kindred works—it is a key to practical business calculations—it is, in the hands of the business man, what the key to mathematical works in the hands of the teacher in the school room—it facilitates time and insures correctness.
THE WORK TREATS OF THE
Measurement of Land, of Lumber, of Brick and Brick Work, of Stone and Stone work, of grain and grain bins, of coal and coal bins, of wood, of solids, of liquids, of circular, square or irregular vessels, of cisterns and vats, of roofing, of plasterer's, painter's, glazier's, paver's, plumber's, paper hanger's and upholsterer's work. It treats of currency and of foreign and domestic exchange, of the decimal system, of reduction and its extended application to business, of simple and compound interest, and their entire application to business transactions, with the laws and usages governing the same, together with numerous commercial forms—of legal tender, of partial payment on notes, of banking and bank discount, of equation of payment and of partnership accounts, of assessment of taxes, of weights and measures, of square and cubic measure, of the square root and its application to business of surfaces, of excavation, and of many other important practical matters not within the scope of an advertisement to mention.
IT IS JUST THE BOOK FOR THE
Farmer, the merchant, the mechanic, the artizan, or the professional man. It has proven a valuable auxiliary to the lawyer, the justice of the peace, the conveyancer, and real estate broker, to the assessor, the banker, the clerk, to the civil engineer and the surveyor, to the carpenter and bricklayer, to the stonemason and the plasterer, to the paper hanger and upholsterer, to the paver and the tiler, &c., &c.; each and all will find it adapted to their various wants better than any book published.
Price, 50 cents. For sale at Lewis' Book Store.
